

[It stops on Day 1.]

#Day1

Welcome to #Day1 Greek Life

This simple, effective, and empowering intervention prevents bullying before it begins. #Day1 is simple. Just follow the three steps below

1

On the first day of class, work, practice, etc., read the Declaration (attached). It takes about 2 minutes. Consider practicing it a few times. Feel free to post it in your room too!

2

Copy & disseminate the Upstander Pledge (attached). Ask folks to really think about it, sign it and send them all back to us at 104 West 29th St 4th Floor, NY NY 10001 or scan and send to day1@tylerclementi.org or visit www.tylerclementi.org/pledge

3

Within seven days of reading the declaration and distributing the pledge, share with us and the #Day1 community how it worked, and how you felt participating! Visit www.day1campaign.com/share_story, email Day1@TylerClementi.org, or share on social media with #Day1 or @TylerClementi.

#Day1 Declaration

In this Sorority/Fraternity, we take it seriously that everyone is treated with decency and respect. We are committed to an environment that is safe and respectful for all who play a role in it.

I want to make a statement about respectful behavior here. We all have had times when we have said or done hurtful things to others out of thoughtlessness, lack of awareness, or because it seems like just a joke. We all may be tempted at times to treat other people poorly out of frustration, retaliation, because others are doing it or because someone acts in a way that we don't like. We ask that you demonstrate self-awareness, respect, restraint, and self-control. With every comment online or in-person, these actions could be damaging to someone's feelings of safety, belonging, connection and emotional well-being. It damages our chapter, our standards, and our community. This is not acceptable.

So let me be clear: any act of harassment, humiliation or bullying against another person... initiate, new member, potential new member, advisor, alumna, event guest, fellow Greek, or supporter, online or in person, is against our values. Specifically, harassment based on race, ethnicity, nationality, gender expression, sexual orientation, body shape or size, or physical, mental or learning ability, financial position, religion or lack of religion, or political beliefs is taken very seriously here. We will not tolerate bullying, harassment or humiliation of any kind.

It is every single person's responsibility to ensure this place continues to be a safe and welcoming environment for all persons.

We ask you to do this: think about your actions and how you want to be treated by others.

In this chapter we expect you to do your best to demonstrate respect, understanding, empathy and kindness to everyone. If you see someone doing harm to another person, do something: report it. If you feel safe, try to stop it. Joining in or doing nothing is not being respectful or kind. If you feel like going the extra step, approach the person who was targeted with a kind word or gesture. You might just have a huge impact on someone's life.

We all make mistakes, so if someone disrespects you, simply say, "That is disrespectful. Please stop."

Get help from chapter leadership or an advisor if the person doesn't listen. And if someone tells you that something you said or did is hurtful or disrespectful: listen, apologize, and make a commitment to self-education around your actions.

And now I want to ask: does everyone understand what I have said and what we expect of you here?

(We ask all #Day1 Leaders to not alter the above language. It has been carefully constructed and informed by research. Feel free to add language, but not subtract any. For more information on the research behind #Day1 go to www.Day1Campaign.com)

#Day1 Upstander Pledge

When I witness harassment, humiliation, or bullying at school, home, work, online, or in my community, I will choose to be an upstander. I will intervene or report the abuse, and I will reach out to the bullied person to offer support.

I will work to make others feel safe and included by showing respect and compassion. I will not use demeaning language, slurs, gestures or jokes about anyone's sexuality, size, gender, race, ethnicity, any kind of disability, religion, lack of religion, income, politics or other differences... even if they behave that way to me.

I will tell someone who is in a position of authority what I saw and heard and make sure there is follow-up.

If I learn that someone is feeling very isolated, depressed or potentially suicidal I will reach out and tell this person that their life has value, no matter how they feel at the moment and no matter what others say or think. I will support them to the best of my ability and connect them with resources or people who can offer assistance.
